INNOVATION ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND DEVELOPMENT CENTRE (IEDC)

IEDC stands for Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Centre. It is a specialized center that focuses on fostering innovation, creativity, and entrepreneurial skills among individuals. IEDCs are typically found in educational institutions such as colleges and universities.

KMCT College of allied health sciences IEDC provide a supportive environment for students and aspiring entrepreneurs to develop their ideas, acquire necessary skills, and launch their own ventures. These centers offer various resources and services such as mentorship programs, training workshops, networking opportunities, access to funding, and incubation facilities.

IEDC also play a crucial role in promoting entrepreneurship and innovation within the local community. They serve as a platform for students and individuals to explore their entrepreneurial potential, develop business plans, and gain practical experience in running a business. Through these centres, aspiring entrepreneurs can receive guidance from experienced mentors and industry experts, which helps them navigate the challenges of starting and scaling a business.

The college has awarded 2 lakh grant from KSUM to develop innovation ecosystem in our institution after inspection which shows the college has requisite expertise and infrastructure.

KMCT COLLEGE OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCE – INNOVATION AND INCUBATION CENTRE

Within a college or university, for example, an invention and Entrepreneurship Development Centre (IEDC) is a specialized project or centre created to support student invention, entrepreneurship, and start-up culture. IEDCs are often set up to give student's access to tools, encouragement, and a supportive atmosphere in which they can develop their entrepreneurial ideas into successful business. KMCT College of allied health sciences IEDC provides a supportive environment for students and aspiring entrepreneurs to develop their ideas, acquire necessary skills, and launch their own ventures. These centres offer various resources and services such as mentorship programs, training workshops, networking opportunities, access to funding, and incubation facilities.

Important attributes of IEDC of KMCT CAHS include:

Mentorship: IEDCs frequently provide students with seasoned mentors or advisors who help them with idea generation, company strategy, and start up implementation.

Workshops & Training: To develop technical know-how, business acumen, and entrepreneurial skills, they provide a range of workshops and training programs.

Networking: Industry experts, financiers, and prosperous business owners can be reached through IEDCs.

Incubation Spaces: A few IEDCs may provide students with actual workplaces or incubation spaces where they can work on projects, use co-working spaces and other resources, and collaborate with others.

Financial Assistance: IEDCs can help students find grants, loans, or venture capital to help them develop their ideas into successful enterprises.

Concept and Business Strategy Competitions: They frequently hold competitions and contests to motivate students to present their creative

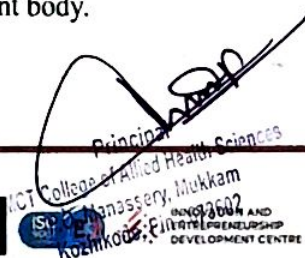

A flourishing and forward-thinking society is built on the foundations of innovation and entrepreneurship. They act as stimulants for societal advancement, job creation, and economic expansion. On 12/01/2022, KMCT CAHS officially opened its invention and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (IEDC), with the goal of igniting the spirit of invention and promoting creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurship among the student body.

The IEDC is a big step in encouraging an innovative and entrepreneurial culture at the campus. Students can use this platform to investigate their entrepreneurial goals, create original solutions to pressing issues, and close the knowledge gap between academics and business. An important milestone in our institution's history, the IEDC's inception represents our dedication to developing the next generation of leaders and job.

Distinguished guests, such as Prof. Dr. Vijay Selvan N (HOD - of Dept of BPT), Prof. Thirumurai Vanan (IEDC NODAL OFFICER), and Prof Santheep S (Principal cum Director of KMCT CAHS) attended the inauguration ceremony and stressed the value of creativity and entrepreneurship in the current global environment. A customary lamp lighting ritual marked the beginning of the event and symbolized the illumination that comes with learning and the spark of creativity.

We have an incubation centre office in KMCT Dental College itself, which is now functioning as incubation centre of entire KMCT institutions
